The By-Laws of the Greater Greenville Sanitation District Commission are hereby amended by deleting Sections II, III and Part A of Section VIII entirely and replacing them with the following:

SECTION II: MISSION

The mission of the Greater Greenville Sanitation District (the District) and Commission is to provide for the collection and transportation of certain waste materials within and outside the geographical District, as defined by and provided for by the Act and/or these Bylaws, consistent with prudent financial practice, operational considerations and other constraints. The District and Commission may otherwise engage in the operation of dumps and landfills for the orderly disposal and containment of certain waste materials for the benefit of Greenville County citizens and others who may contract to utilize the District's services.

SECTION III: POLICIES OF THE DISTRICT AND COMMISSION

The District and Commission, consistent with the availability of revenues, personnel and equipment, shall use their best efforts to fulfill their mission, with administrative and financial oversight, as authorized under the Act, these Bylaws, and in accordance with their policies and procedures.

SECTION VIII: SUBCOMMITTEES

A. There shall be subcommittees for:

- Legal/Property
- Operations
- Equipment
- Public Relations
- Medical
- Human Resources
- Safety
- Planning & Development
